

Title of Position *	Intern
Institution *	The Plano Conservancy for Historic Preservation
Position Location: City & State *	Plano, Texas
Position Closing Date	Sunday, October 15, 2017
About the Institution	The Plano Conservancy for Historic Preservation, Inc., a Texas corporation 501 (c)(3) non-profit, is an organization dedicated to promoting civic pride in the past, to increasing preservation awareness through education and public outreach, and to providing financial assistance to protect and preserve our heritage resources for this and future generations. One of the major projects for The Plano Conservancy for Historic Preservation is managing the Interurban Railway Museum in Historic Downtown Plano, Texas.
Institution Website Address	http://www.planoconservancy.org/
Summary of Responsibilities	The Plano Conservancy for Historic Preservation Inc., is looking for a motivated student who is pursuing a graduate degree in historic preservation or other applicable fields of study (history, museum studies, anthropology, etc.). We provide an opportunity to gain valuable real-world experience and we are always willing to work with professors and colleges to help students earn course credit. Our previous interns have had the opportunity to write & publish books, write museum docent materials, assist with exhibit design and installation, and even redesign this website!
Required Qualifications	Enrollment in an applicable graduate program.
Compensation	$10.00 hourly
Apply at this Website:
Apply with this email:	jcampbell@planoconservancy.org
Special Instructions to Apply:	Please send resume and program of study.